CONGRESS.

THIRTY-THIRD CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION.

Senate, Saturday, July 1, 1854.

Mr. Summer presented a memorial from 684 men of Massachusetts, principally of Boston, praying the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Act.

He gave notice that on Monday he would ask leave to introduce a bill for the repeal of the said Fugitive Slave Act.

Mr. Rockwell presented the memorial of numerous citizens of Lowell and other places in Massachusetts, praying the amployment of civilians, instead of military officers, as superintendents of the national armories.

On motion of Mr. Johnson, a bill authorizing the exchange and granting additional school lands to the several States wherein are situated public lands, in certain cases, was taken up and passed.

ated public lands, in certain cases, was taken up and passed.

Mr. Clayton moved that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the bill reported by him some weeks since, upon the subject of restrict-ing the transfer of American built vessels in foreign ports, to be engaged in the African slave trade.

Mr. Sumner suggested that the bill would require amendment in several particulars; and as one Senator intended to discuss the subject at length, he hoped the bill would not now be pressed.

The bill was taken up.

Mr. Clayton briefly explained the bill, which on his motion was amended in several small particulars.

Mr. Hamlin said he would vote for the bill but suggested that it could be made far more effective by prohibiting, absolutely, all trade and commerce between the South American coast and the coast of Africa, in American vessels.

Mr. Clayton said the bill would prove effectual, because it took away from all American elavers the character of nationality, which now protected them from search. otected them from search.

Mr. Pettit moved an amendment, appropriate to another the Amer ating $250,000 annually, to enable the American Colonization Society to establish a line of armed steamers on that coast.

This amendment being considered too important to be briefly disposed of, the bill was postponed.

Mr. Gwin, from the Committee of Confer-

Mr. Gwin, from the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the subject of an adjournment, reported a resolution providing for an adjournment of Congress sine die on the 4th of August next.

Mr. Houston then addressed the Senate, in personal explanations of matters in controversy between himself and Commodore E. W. Moore, of the Texas navy; and, in so doing, gave a historical account of the trials and viciositudes of that Republic.

House of Representatives, July 1, 1854. Mr. Orr, from the Committee of Conference on the Adjournment, made a report, in which Friday, the 4th day of August, was designated as the day. Mr. Orr called for the previous question on agreeing to this report.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, moved to lay the reported resolution on the table, and hoped it would be nailed there.

The yeas and nays were ordered on this motion, and the result was—vess 50, navs 114.

The vote on the question, "Shall the main question be now put?" was taken by yeas and nays, and resulted—yeas 102, nays 63.

The main question was then decided in the affirmative—yeas 114, nays 54.

On motion of Mr. McMullen, the House went into Committee of the Whole on the private calendar, Mr. Walley in the Chair.

Mr. Chandler commenced an argument in support of the claim of the heirs of the late Richard W. Meade.

We are again publishing advertisements of A) er's Cherry Pectoral. This medicine is taking a very strong hold upon the good opinion of the people. It is regarded generally as a most excellent remedy for Pulmonary Complaints, Coughs, and Colds. Having found it an excellent medicine, we cheerfully endorse it -Miscellany, Detroit.

A GREAT BLESSING TO THE APPLICIED.

The number and formidable character of diseases of the Liver have long challenged the attention of medical men. Some of these diseases, classed under the general term of Consumption, have been sup-posed incurable, and the unhappy patient allowed to die, without medical science to offer him a hope of recovery. Happily this can no longer be the case. A remedy has been found which will cure complaints, of whatever character, arising from derangement of the Liver. The Pills discovered by Dr. McLane, of Virginia, act directly on the Liver; and by correct ing its operation, and purifying it from disease, outs off and extirpates the complaints which have their origin in the diseases of this organ. Remedies hitherto proposed for liver complaints have failed to operate upon the seat of the disease; but Dr. Mc-Lane's Pills make themselves felt upon the action of the Liver, and, by cleansing the fountain, dry up the impure streams of disease, which thence derive their existence.

OF Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. Mc-LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other Pills, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public.

Dr. McLane's Liver Pills also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada. 50

The author of this book is the editor of the Albany State Register, and among all our brother editors we know of none of such rare fancy and humor in depicting country life. Isaac Walton would have been delighted to read such a book, and Christopher North would be happy in inhaling such good-humored sketches of country sports. We have rarely read anything more instinct of life and fun, than this book, or which is more appropriate to the season of summer and rural life.—N. Y. Express.

Reader, you have a rich treat before you, in the pages of this volume, which comes before you with interminable changes, magnificent groves, whose tall trees have withstood the storms of a thousand years; luxuriant gardens, fertile mesdows, quiet lakes and running brooks, hills, valleys, and mountains—a multitude of attractions to inspire new, enlarged, fresh thoughts, in the mind that is wearied with the dult routine of our city life and dusty streets.—Philadelphia Centrier.

It is so attractive, that he who opens it, will reluctantly relinquish it, till he has followed the writer over the hills, across the lakes, and among the forest atreams—Rochester American.

A book that will be greeted by sportsmen, and eagerly read by the lovers of romantic adventure. Such readers will envy the author's happiness when they find him pulling up the simple, uneducated trout, from those secluded lakes; tipping over the deer at every shot; snuffing the fresh breezes of those old primeval mountains and hills; and listening to the music of the wird, wild woods.—Auburn Journal:

This is a charming volume. One almost field the bracing freshness of the lakes and forests as he turns over its graphic and sprightly pages. They are absolutely so bewitching, that to read them is not to be content without rusticating.—Philadelphia News.

His descriptions of the forest, the stream, the lake, the meadow, the birds, and the blossoms are spontaneous gushes—warm feelings set to the simple music of Saxon words. Rastman's Infallible sick Headache Remedy. Rashman's infallible Sick Hendache Remedy.

THIS preparation, by E. P. EASTMAN, M. D., of Lynn, Mass., has been used in private practice for the last four years, with the greatest success. A radical cure has been effected in every instance where the directions have been strictly followed and persevered in. Dr. E. P. Eastman.

DEAR SIR: A member of my family—a daughter, ten years of age—was afflicted with the sick headache, and we tried various remedies without success. When, however, you administered to her your "Headache Powders," we found them to be very beneficial, and, in fact, restored her to health.

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully

DOCTOR HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by

Dr. C M. Juckson at the cerman Medicine Store, 130 Arch street Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain, and pleasant.

PHILADELPHIA, March 1, 1853

DRAR SIR: For the past two years I have been severely afflicted with Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and Piles, suffering constantly the pains and inconveniences attendant upon such complaints, without energy, being scarcely able to attend to any business. I used a great deal of medicine, without any apparent change until I used your "Hooflund's German Bitters." They have entirely cured me. I am now entirely free from pain and ache of any kind, and feel tike a new man in every respect, and unhesitatingly recommend your Bitters to all invalids.

Yours, respectfully.

DEAR SIR: I have used your "Hoofland's German Bitters" in my family for the last four years, for Liver Complaints and Dyspepeia, and am pleased to acknowledge that we have recommended it to a great many afflicted with similar diseases, with the same good result. I have no hesitation in saying that it is an invaluable medicine, and hope you will be able to introduce it into every family in the Union.

Yours, truly, WM. HUGHES,

Dr. C. M. Jackson.

These Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing great advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases. They possess great power in the removal of diseases of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most potent influence in weakness of the nerves and digestive organs. They are, withat, safe, certain, and pleasant.

Never could this be said with more truth, than it now applies to this remedy for affections of the throat and lungs. The exalted in learning and power acknowledge its supremacy, while both the little and the great can feel its benefits. The liberalminded among those skilled to cure, are free to own its mastery over distempers which have baffled their art. Those of exalted stations are not ashamed t testify to its virtues, but deem it a duty and a pleas ure to thus hold out the lamp of their experience to their suffering fellow men.

Witness the following: [Translation] VERMILLIONVILLE, La., April, 1853. I have of late made frequent use of your Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and am happy to inform you that in no case yet has it failed me. I have made some signal cures of Laryngitis and Bronchitis with it, and have completely cured one case of Asthma, which had withstood every other medicine I could employ.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have examined the "Avery Seveing Machine," and choorfully recommend it for its simplicity, durability, and especially for the peculiar stitch made by it. The stitch is original, and in appearance is like the most perfect and handsome "back-stitching." To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to accertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of or the number of corns on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

A success unprecedented in Theological Pub-A N impression has already been produced by this

A N impression has already been produced by this a masterly treatise, the most profound, wide reaching, and permanent.

It is periedly manifest to all competent observers, that we are upon the eve of a theological discussion, the most comprehensive, radical, and portentous, the world-has ever seen. To this discussion this book leads the way, with a momentum irresistible. There is not a question in Theology which is not destined to come up for a new and thorough settlement in the light of this final development.

All those who have Theological doubts and difficulties should examine the rolution this work affords. Those who have no doubts, but who wish to study the history of opinions in the past, and to keep pace with the developments of opinion in the future, will grievously err if they neglect to make themselves familiar with this book. It contains the seeds of the thinkings and debatings of the next hundred years.

The reception of this work by the The logical press of the country, has been significant. Equally declining to accept his conclusion, they do it on opposite and contradictory grounds. One half of the Theological press endorses the major premise of the argument, and denies the mijor. And as they are probably both right in their positive element, and wrong in their negative, he work has received a Virtual Endornement of the most powerfut kind. wrong in their negative, the work has received a Vir-tual Endorsement of the most powerfus kind.
